NEW STEAMSHIP LINE.

According to the Salt Lake Tribune a new steamship line, under the name of the Pacific Ocean S. S. Co. will soon be added to the lines which make Honolulu a port of call. The new line will run in connection with the new railroad which is being built from Salt Lake City to San Pedro by Senator Clark. San Pedro will be the home of the steamship line. A fine harbor is being dredged at that place with 30 feet depth of water. A breakwater is being built for an outer harbor. When the work is completed San Pedro will have four bays of wharves. The steamship line will not run in competition with any of the already established lines but will, with San Pedro as its base and Honolulu as a port of call, develop its own territory in the Orient.

YORKTOWN MAN OVERBOARD.

According to the Chronicle the gunboat Yorktown lost a man overboard on her last trip from this port. The Chronicle says: "One of the crew of the gunboat Yorktown, filing the position of deck blacksmith, was lost at sea during the trip of the vessel from Honolulu to this port. His absence was not noticed until the morning of the crew, two or three days before reaching port, and none of the men could shed light on the manner of his taking off. It is believed that he fell over the rail during the rolling of the vessel at night. The Yorktown, after remaining at anchor in the bay all night, went up to Mars Island yesterday afternoon."
